

Damn Them to Hell

Cam Coleman • 5.21.20

I will defend this land
for their skin is not like mine.
For the President told me they came from gangs and rapists and drug dealers.
I will defend this land for they are a threat to our home security.
For they cover their faces and bodies in the same clothing of the people who took down our towers of power.
I will continue to defend this land in the name of all that is right which is nothing but white.
