

WE NEED TO BUILD A WALL

Cam Coleman • 5.19.20

You shut us off
from the scared
the fleeing the crying the lost the children the orphaned while u sit in your chair with your crown talking to the blue bird.

You shut us off
from safety
from equality from open opportunities from trust from courage from belief because when the KKK is behind the wheel,
running over my families and my brothers and sisters,
you decide to say we're all in the wrong.

You shut us off
Mr. President Dude.
You're killing us
Mr. President Dude.
We're scared
Mr. President Dude.
But you'll never swoop us off our feet
And save us all
Mr. President Dude.
